CRISIS SUPPORT PROGRAMS

Navigation: A client works with a trained and culturally competent Navigator who serves as the client's single and trusted point of contact.

Lawyers for Family Justice: Legal incubator program providing pro bono legal services for clients—expanded to 10 lawyers.

Multidisciplinary Teams (MDT): Domestic Violence and Human Trafficking cases bring together law enforcement agencies and advocates for monthly case review meetings for high-danger client cases.

Healing Conversations: New 2019 counseling services led by a trilingual licensed therapist. Families who have experienced IPV can meet with a therapist for short-term intervention. They can also connect with people facing similar challenges in the Healing Conversations support group in

LONG-TERM SAFETY PROGRAM

WINGS (Women INspired to Grow and Succeed): Financial self-sufficiency and leadership skills-building class for survivors (English and Spanish cohorts).

Mentes Positivas: Courses providing tools for clients to reduce stress and depressive symptoms.

Triple P Parenting: Classes providing parents with simple and practical strategies to help them build healthy relationships, confidently manage their children's behavior, and prevent problems from developing.

Inner Strength Yoga: Gentle yoga hosted by Karma Yoga, appropriate for beginners, seniors, and even kids.

Tax Day: Free tax preparation services.

Backpack Drive: Provides backpacks with educational supplies for children to succeed in school.

Success Academy: New 2019 children's programming to provide academic support, especially for special school projects, for children whose families experience violence.

COMMUNITY BUILDING PROGRAMS

Community Fellowship Program: A 4 month long stipended Fellowship in which survivors of violence develop their leadership skills while creating their own projects to support others in their community.

Project Connect: A community-building initiative to engage residents, survivors, and community partners to increase community awareness of IPV and improve communication among stakeholders.

Healing Circle: Restorative Justice Circle to foster open and inclusive conversations about individual and community trauma.

Family Justice Institute: A school which offers workshops and trainings on topics related to IPV to build capacity for service providers and the community.

Countywide Trainings for Law Enforcement: To help law enforcement officers identify and handle cases of interpersonal violence - we are the lead agency organizing and coordinating these trainings in Contra Costa County.

Run for Family Justice: Running team to promote health and community.
