The Family Justice Center (the “Center”) is a warm and welcoming one-stop center for victims of interpersonal violence (IPV) -- domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, elder abuse and human trafficking. The Center serves victims and survivors regardless of their income, immigration status or location. We meet survivors where they are and help them through the process of healing and self-empowerment. The Center is a public-private partnership committed to creating a vibrant community free of coercion and fear. It supports the West Center located in Richmond, the Central Center in Concord, East Center in Antioch, and the Solano Center in Fairfield.

POSITION SUMMARY:

We are accepting applications for one full-time Clinician for the East Center in Antioch. This is an exempt position reporting to the Clinical Director. The Clinician may work remotely if appropriate. We provide generous fringe benefits, including paid holidays, annual and sick leave, health insurance coverage, dental and vision coverages, and retirement benefits.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Conduct screening interview with all incoming clients, including needs assessment, safety plan, service plan, and follow-up plan.
- Carry a caseload of individual clients (50 clients per year) and provide individual and group therapy.
- Participate in ongoing case-planning with Family Justice Navigators.
- Monitor program deliverables and evaluation.
- Assist with grant reporting.
- Perform other duties, functions, special projects, and responsibilities as assigned and deemed necessary by the Behavioral Health Program Director.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

- Licensed in the State of California (LMFT or LCSW) or an Associate Clinician (AMFT or ASW) required.
- Two years’ experience in providing trauma informed therapy and care preferred.
